ALMA MATER

In the state of Carolina,

Near the mountains blue,

In her ever gleaming ardor

Stands our school so true.

Sing all praises to her glory,

Ever may she stand,

Hail to Thee, O, Inman High School,

Best school in the land.

DEDICATION

To MRS. MARJORIE MALONEY

Looking into the Mirror

Gazing into the mirror of the year 1979, I see old friends of the 1954 class of Inman High School. Their faces reflect happiness and contentment and a moderate degree of success.

Eddie Lee Taylor, owner of the Star Opera House in New York, is talking to the stars of his present show, "Ladies Have a Heart." The production has had a six weeks' run on Broadway. Featured with the leading lady and man, Inez Blackwell and Carl Bradley, are Shirley Teague and Cecil Hunsinger.

Peggy Ballenger is editor of the magazine called "Mad Comics." She is talking to her art editor, Louise Lowe, and her business manager, Douglas Donnahoo. Evidently Peggy is well pleased. Doug reports business unusually good. He says that a copy is available in the library at I. H. S. for every student. Louise has just completed her drawing of Atomic Boy, a character that excells Superman and even Spaceman.

Patricia Allen is head coach of the girls' team at Tucapau University. She is assisted by Shirley Phillips, a former Winthrop star.

Owner of a chain of Minute-Car-Wash Stations is Eugene Brooks. Victor Browne (he is out of the Army now) is chief car-washer at the One-Stop Station located on the Asheville Highway.

Reginald Horton and Curtis Pace have the largest woodyard in America. The business is located near Inman on the Lyman Road.

Gerald Lynch operates Lynch's Funeral Parlor; Roger Ramey is the undertaker, and Phyllis Wilson, secretary.

The First Presbyterian Church of Inman has recently called a pastor. Of course, he is Mickey Inman. He is assisted by Suzanne Hannon, educational director.

Shirley Loftis and Aileen Fox are dress designers for the Dainty Dress Manufacturing Company in Chicago; Faye Jordan and Shirley Lee are co-owners.

Edwin Gowan operates the Deluxe Cafe in Kalamazoo, and Betty Penland is the waitress.

Defoy Vaughn is head pharmacist at the Corner Drug Store at Inman, and Martha West is Doctor Grady Rhinehart's nurse. Grady's office was formerly occupied by Doctor Morrow.

J. C. Brittain is owner of Brittain's Super Construction Company of Atlanta. His chief engineer is Douglas Brittain.

Norman Greene is a famous sports promoter in the Garden Arena at Miami, Florida.

Evelyn Prewette and Emily Loftis conduct the Majorette School in Hollywood.

Rebecca Massebeau and Marian Bailey are instructors of the Inman High School Band.

I am out in New Mexico tending my oil wells and getting richer ever day.

The Student Council functions to develop better leadership, to insure school spirit, to promote the general welfare of the school, and to secure better cooperation.

The president of the council is elected from the senior class; vice president from the junior class; and other officers from any class above the eighth grade.

BLOCK I CLUB

Members of the Athletic teams constitute the Block I Club.

Its objective is to promote good sportsmanship in the school and community.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club is under the direction of Mr. Harrison Elliott. Its two-fold purpose is to develop an appreciation for good music and to stimulate culture.

The members make a public appearance during commencement.

J. H. A.

In the J. H. A., girls have an opportunity through their chapter projects and recreation to make full use of their enthusiasm and cooperation.

Highlights of the J. H. A. year are initiating and installing new members and officers, conducting a food booth at the Halloween Carnival, entering an exhibit at the Piedmont Interstate Fair, and attending the State Fair.

F. F. A.

The primary aim of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship.

Each member in the local club is required to have a specific project. Exhibits are placed in the Piedmont Interstate Fair.

The highlight of the year is the week's camping trip at the beach.

FOOTBALL

H. H. Smith, District 11 Coach of the Year, is being congratulated by Coach Walker in the presence of two outstanding Panthers, Marshall Perkins (left) and Norman Greene (right).

SUMMARY

District 1 Purple Panthers started in a big way by not being scored on in the first three games. They went on into a successful season with a 7-2 record, losing only to Welcome and Clinton.

The Panthers were the 1953 District 11 champs.

The leading scorer was Norman Greene with 90 points; Greene also led the area in scoring. Marshall Perkins was second high scorer on the team with 37 points.

Grady Rhinehart, Gerald Lynch, and J. C. Brittain were standouts on defense.

The team will lose seven members by graduation. They are: Walker Williams, J. C. Brittain, Gerald Lynch, Norman Greene, Marshall Perkins, Grady Rhinehart, Phillip Lake, and Roger Ramey.

SUMMARY

Since the team lacked depth and since many players were inexperienced, the season on the hardwood turned out better than we had anticipated. Coach Burnett deserves much credit for his excellent work.

New members made up half of the varsity team. Veteran players were Shirley Phillips, Patricia Allen, and Carole Dotherow.

Phillips and Allen closed their high school careers this year.

SUMMARY

Coach Smith's Purple Panthers won the District 11 Class B Boys' Basketball Championship. In the Upper-State finals at Clinton they were defeated by the Buford sextet.

Including the final game, the Purples had 19 wins and only two losses, scoring 67.3 point-per-game average to the opponents' 45. Marshall Perkins paced individual scoring with a 24.4 average; Norman Greene, with 18.1.

Perkins, Greene, Rhinehart, and Vaughn — varsity players — bade good-bye to high school basketball this year.
